SPRING HILL
UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

OUTLOOK

THE PASTOR'S THOUGHTS....

Dear Family of Faith,

While cleaning off my desk at home recently, I ran across a letter from an old friend. He shared about what had happened in his life in the six years since we last saw each other. He went through homelessness, disease, and mental illness. At the end of the letter he left his email address and told me to write back sometime. I grieved when I re-read his letter because that "sometime" never came. You see, in the meantime I got word that he had died. The chance to reconnect with a guy that had few friends and many troubles was lost for good. It reminded me again, with sad regret, how fleeting life can be and how fleeting the chances of life can be.

A lot of us live under the assumption that we can do tomorrow what we don't want to do today; yet tomorrow never comes. It reminds me of a sign on a seafood restaurant in Canton, Ohio, which reads, "Free Crab Tomorrow." They never had to serve a single plate of free crab to anyone because tomorrow was always tomorrow.

If tomorrow is always tomorrow in our lives, then today is all we have, and we have to do what is important today. This is especially true in our relationships with the people that matter most to us. James lays it out forcefully in his letter (4:13-14): "Come now, you who say, 'Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a town and spend a year there, doing business and making money.' Yet you do not ever know what tomorrow will bring. What is your life? For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes." We don't know anything about what tomorrow will bring, so we can't assume that we can do or say what needs to be done or said tomorrow. We have only the present (which is the only place God dwells, too—in the eternal present). What does this mean for us? Carpe diem! Seize the day! Today is the day to be who you are; today is the day to do what needs to be done; today is the day to say what needs to be said; today is the day to choose what needs to be chosen.

In this month of February when love is on many people's minds, it is time to love broadly and boldly. If, as Mother Teresa of Calcutta famously said, "loneliness is the greatest disease of humanity," then love is the great antidote to the world's greatest problem. Love takes many forms, from intimate relations to friendships to compassion. All are needed in our love-forsaken world. I challenge you to live just one day thinking to yourself as you meet the people of that day's activities, "This person needs to be loved." Whether it's your partner or spouse, a child, someone at work, a friend of many years, or a stranger on the street, look at them and think, "This person needs to be loved." Isn't that exactly what Jesus did? If you see people in this way, you will surprise yourself at how easy it is to be helpful and kind, considerate and caring—the very marks of being Christian. If you undertake this 'experiment,' let me know what happens. Cast your love far so that all may find in you a reflection of the love of God. Love broadly!

So, also, love boldly! Don't keep your love bottled up inside. Let it be what it is. Many of us are timid and hesitant to love because we have gotten "burned" in the past. We have loved those who didn't love us in return or loved those who misunderstood our love. Don't let those experiences keep you from loving again. Anybody who has ever "made it big" in the entertainment or business world has always lost a lot of time, money, and emotional capital before they ever succeeded. Risking is part of the gig, so to speak. Christian is our name; love is our game! I am continually amazed at how many people, men and women alike, look for the hugs I so freely give after worship. First-time visitors, complete strangers to me, open their arms when they see others hugging. Always show a little tenderness to others; either it will bring back a lot of good memories or it will create good memories to replace the painful memories of the past. Either way you become a blessing. Love holds and hugs, love dances and laughs, love cries and prays. Love does what makes another whole. And love let-loose in us gives us the freedom to be who and what we are. Love boldly!

Don't lose the chance you have today to make a difference in our world. Love broadly and love boldly!

With affection from one lover to another,
 Pastor Carlan

MODERATOR'S CORNER

Is there someone out there who is hungry, a little girl or boy without shoes, without notebooks for school? Or a baby in a foreign land without a blanket. Well, there's someone right here in Spring Hill United Church of Christ who knows all about these things. When you walk into a meeting of Missions, there is a noticeable hubbub of cheery voices and leading them all is Hazel McElroy. Hazel and the members of the mission team have taken care of so many people in need. Unfortunately, there are always more but the Mission Team is on their toes arranging for backpacks for the children who don't have food in our school district and now beginning this new project to get the children in Spring Hill to be able to attend school because they will be supplying the shoes. Habitat for Humanity, someone who has no money for gas, food for the pantries in Spring Hill are all being taken care of by Hazel and her crew.....And they love to do it. You can see it on their faces when someone comes up with a new idea to help the unfortunate. Hazel works very hard at this task as she has done in the past on different positions in this church. She is a devoted servant to Spring Hill United Church of Christ and to her Lord with her kindness and dedication. It's so heartwarming to see Hazel enter the church and alongside her, her buddy, her friend and constant companion, Sweet Cindy. God Bless Them Both.

Faith Formation will again sponsor a Kids Karnival. The date is Sunday, April 10 from 2-4 p.m. Lynne Carver has volunteered to serve as chairperson of this important event. There is a need for more games so if you have a game which would be suitable for children to play contact Lynne or a Faith Formation team member. Also, we will need prizes to award to the game players. If you can contribute small, inexpensive items for prizes or can volunteer to help let us know. Last fall we had 200 children and adults attend this free Kids Karnival so your help is needed in many ways.

Pastor Carlan continues the Bible study of the Gospel of John on Wednesday evenings at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. It is never to late to join the study.

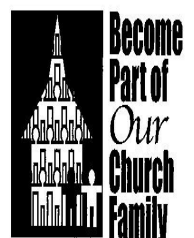

Sunday School teachers are needed. Teachers are on a three Sunday rotation so you would be teaching for three Sundays. Our teaching curriculum is highly developed with many suggestions and our Sunday School rooms is stocked with any supplies required. Please contact Pastor Carlan or any member of the Faith Formation team if you can volunteer three consecutive Sundays during the year. Also, there are openings for volunteers for Nursery care on Sundays, March 6, 13, and 27.

If you are interested in serving on the Faith Formation team please contact any of the team members— Pat Scott, Annabelle Gibson, Gloria Bulau, Marty Hodgkins and Sylvia Chapman.

The Hook-N-Needle Gang is looking for new gang members. We meet at noon every Wednesday. Bring whatever you're working on or learn something new. Stop in for a visit and a little laughter! Call Carol Valerio or Jill Helgeson for more information.

For those wishing to join our congregation, Pastor Carlan will be holding New Member meetings in February. Please let him know if you are interested in joining.

EVANGELISM

It's still the beginning of the year but your Evangelism Team has already been busy making up visitors' gift bags. And we're blessed to have had over 30 visitors in January alone. During 2010, there were over 80 first time visitors to our welcoming church. And it seems as though we may have even more than that during the first 3 months of 2011! Isn't that wonderful? Let's make sure that every one of us welcomes our visitors during worship or fellowship hour so that we can extend the love of God to all through our welcoming hearts and open arms. Also, please let me know if you have any ideas for visitors' gift bags or would like to become part of our team! We are hoping to expand our activities during the coming year and are always interested in learning new ways to make people feel welcome and appreciated.

Lynne Carver, Team Leader—592-1043

On behalf of the University of Florida and the families we serve I want to say thank you for your generosity in providing Christmas gifts for needy families within our community. The children and the families were overwhelmed by your kindness, and the children were elated with their gifts. One of the biggest responses we heard from families was their amazement at the quality of the gifts given; that wasn't expected. People in poverty are used to "cheap" "used" or "no-name" brand items and are grateful for those items. To receive the quality of gifts they received from you was an unexpected "gift" for the families. In your giving you powerfully demonstrated the true meaning of Christmas- in Jesus God gave us the most costliest gift-his Son. God's love is lavish, abundant, and free to all. Thanks for modeling this truth in your generosity toward strangers.

Linda Bixby, Parent Educator—UF Nurturing Program

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Twenty persons from the community as well as our church met on January 10th for the organizational meeting of PFLAG (Parents, Friends, & Families of Lesbians and Gays). Support group meetings will be held on the 4th Monday of each month in Fellowship Hall. Virginia Burns, a member of SHUCC, is the chapter's president and the key contact person.

The SJT continues to follow the work of Interfaith Action of SW Florida and their work with the Immokalee farmworkers. On Saturday, March 5, persons interested in supporting this cause are invited to participate in a public event to call on Publix to support human rights and fair wages for farmworkers. Unfortunately, Publix has been reluctant to join the growing movement of consumers, retailers, growers, and farmworkers working to eliminate poverty and abuses in the fields. Please contact Marty Hodgkins (352 610-4286) for more information regarding times, carpooling, etc.

Marty Hodgkins, Team Leader

DIACONATE MINISTRY

Thanks to our dedicated knitters, there are several prayer shawls ready to be presented. At a recent meeting of the diaconate names of possible recipients were suggested. During the worship service on Sunday, January 30th, the shawls, which will be on display in the sanctuary, will be dedicated for their intended purpose by Pastor Carlan. In the following weeks they will be given as gifts of love from the church family. We are deeply grateful to Bettie Kluesner and Carol Valerio, who invest their time and talent in this prayer shawl ministry. A brief message explaining the origin and purpose of the prayer shawl ministry accompanies each shawl. You are encouraged to assist in furthering this ministry by gifts of money or material to Bettie Kluesner.

Home Communion will be offered during the month of February to those wishing it. Please notify the church office if you would like to participate.

A note is being prepared to accompany altar flowers which are given to sick or shut-in people of our church family.

Ash Wednesday, on March 9th, will be the next celebration of Holy Communion. A light supper will be served in Fellowship Hall followed by Communion. Details will be announced later.

Please remember in prayer those people listed in the Sunday bulletin. Send requests for inclusion in the prayer chains to Ellen Niemann at 686-3906 or Maxine Calise at 556-4593.

Bible study on the gospel of John with Pastor Carlan continues each Wednesday at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Don't miss this opportunity for growth in knowledge and fellowship!

Following is an excerpt from The Prophetic Imagination by Walter Brueggemann:

“Jesus in his solidarity with the marginal ones is moved to compassion. Compassion constitutes a radical form of criticism, for it announces that the hurt is to be taken seriously, that the hurt is not to be accepted as normal and natural but is an abnormal and unacceptable condition for humanness. In the arrangement of “lawfulness” in Jesus’ time, as in the ancient empire of pharaoh, the one unpermitted quality of relation was compassion. Empires are never built or maintained on the basis of compassion. The norms of law (social control) are never accommodated to persons, but persons are accommodated to the norms. Otherwise the norms will collapse and with them the whole power arrangement. Thus the compassion of Jesus is to be understood not simply as a personal emotional reaction but as a public criticism in which he dares to act upon his concern against the entire numbness of his social context.”

Dare to be compassionate!

M Post Christmas News - The families to whom we sent Christmas gifts were delighted to receive them. At least one family remarked on the high quality of the gifts. The homeless mother with one child was so grateful for the duffel bag in which the gifts were packed and now can be used to pack belongings as they move about without any one place to call home. The adults could not believe the generosity of the gift cards. Thank you again for sharing the love of Jesus through these gifts.

S The Sneakers/Shoes for Kids project has kicked off. The silent auction of the paintings donated by Alan Thompson continues through Feb. 13th with the funds going to this project. Thanks Alan for sharing your talents. The Hamburger Helper project for the benefit of HeartFELT backpacks program is ongoing. Please note this is NOT in place of the first Sunday of the month food collection. Those food collections continue to go to Day Star and Salvation Army alternately.

O The Mission Fund donations in January were $100 to OCWM and $100 to Interfaith Action of Florida. Please look at the Mission Bulletin Board for detailed info on OCWM. Interfaith Action of Florida is an interest being pursued by the Social Justice Team. I plan to publish each month those to whom we make donations that month with the amount sent.

JARS NEEDED Our Tuesday Craft Group is in need of half-pint, pint and quart jars with lids (new or used) and sugar. For more information, please contact Judith Dascenzo or Deb Rafnell.

WORSHIP TEAM

The Worship Team is busy planning for the Lenten Season. We are so excited to have two new members on our team: Paulette Hess and Andrea Gleason. They bring a lot of new ideas to us and have already gone to work! Gail King will be obtaining the ushers and other Sunday morning personnel for the next few months. When she asks you to serve, please give her an enthusiastic "yes." If she asks you to do something that you think you can't do, maybe you could suggest something to her that you feel comfortable doing. Each week she needs four ushers, two door greeters, two book greeters, a liturgist and an acolyte. We ask each "volunteer" to serve for a month at a time, if possible. There is nothing difficult about any of these positions and it's a great way to get acquainted with other members of the congregation.

Elma Adams, for the Team.

The following gifts to our Memorial Fund have recently been received and we are grateful to those who remembered loved ones in this manner.

SPRING RUMMAGE SALE & OUTDOOR FLEA MARKET

FRIDAY MARCH 4, 2-11 AND SATURDAY MARCH 5, 2011

Would you believe the Spring Rummage Sale and Outdoors Flea Market is just around the corner? Yes, it is Friday, March 4th and Saturday, March 5th, 2011 from 8:00 A. M. to 1:00 P.M. each day in Fellowship Hall.

Our set up will begin on Sunday, February 27th after the Church Service and after we finish our coffee. We need all those strong energetic men to help set up the tables in Fellowship Hall. (Did you notice our new tables—they are much lighter). Then on Monday, February 28th thru Thursday, March 3rd from 8:00 am to 12:00 noon, we will be accepting those wonderful “Treasures” you are going to donate in Fellowship Hall. We have added an extra couple of hours for all that can’t make it during the day. On Tuesday, March 1st, we will be open from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm for you to drop off your donations.

You might be asking what are these “treasures”? Some of the donations that are sellable items are: clean clothes in good condition (adult and children), household articles, kitchenware’s, dishes, books, magazines, tapes, CD’S, DVD’S, video’s and of course puzzles, games, toys, stuffed animals and dolls. We can use shoes, pocketbooks, hats, belts, scarves and gloves. Sporting equipment is a big hit too. So men check out your golf clubs, bags, balls and maybe you need ones. That old TV, computer, radio, and even a ham radio that’s in the back of the shed or garage taking up too much space. I even found some sprinkler heads in a cabinet in my shed (don’t know how to use it either). That bike in the corner hasn’t been used for a long time someone might just buy it. Check everything out. Ladies don’t forget that linens sell very fast too. Don’t forget the boxes of Christmas decorations that didn’t get put away yet, need to be sorted too. HAPPY CLEANING. Unfortunately we can’t take large appliances or furniture. There is no room but small ones we can sell. Everyone now is looking for good bargains.

Ladies don’t feel like we have left you out - we can use homemade goodies, muffins, cookies, brownies or coffee cake to go with the coffee we sell to our hungry crowd.

In conjunction with the Rummage Sale, there will be an Outdoor Flea Market. Check with your neighbors, friends or relatives if they would like to rent a space during this time.

Co chairpersons for this event are Elma Adams 686-5499 and Dennis Browning 593-4050.

There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board in the Church Hallway near the office for helpers. MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK Remember our favorite words.

YES - HELP - THANK YOU - HAVE FUN

See you all there, Marylou Pulliam, Hospitality Team Leader

HOSPITALITY MINISTRY TEAM

It doesn't feel like we are in the second month of the year already. Our team has started planning many events. If you thought 2010 was exciting and FUN, just wait and see what is planned for this year.

Our first event will occur on Sunday February 13 during Fellowship Hour. Let me just give you a hint..... CHOCOLATE. We are calling it VALENTINES DESSERT BUFFET. Sounds scrumptious.

Now that Spring is just around the corner, it is time for our SPRING RUMMAGE SALE AND OUTDOOR FLEA MARKET. Mark your calendars – Friday, March 4th and Saturday March, 5th. For more details, read the article on page 7.

The Sunday after the Rummage Sale is MARDI GRAS which is March 6. We will be celebrating this day with colorful beads, song and worship. At Fellowship Hour, we will be having King's Cake which is a traditional dessert for Mardi Gras. The cake 's icing is purple (justice), green (faith), and gold (power). Tradition says the cake is baked with a prize inside and the one that gets the prize, a plastic baby, pays for the King's cake or host the party next year. Another FUN day!

That same week is ASH WEDNESDAY March, 9th. We will be serving a light supper consisting of home-made soup and homemade bread in Fellowship Hall followed by Communion in the Church Sanctuary. Time will be announced in the church bulletin. This is a wonderful way to start the season of Lent.

On the Sundays we don't have anything special we still need host/hostess for Fellowship Hour. There is a sign up sheet on the bulletin board across from the Church office. . You can call Rosie Barnsdale 352-232-2686, if you have any questions. We want to thank Addy & Richard Hackl for doing it the last 2 years. Keep it simple and you will Have FUN!!!!

Game day in February will be the third Thursday again on the 17th. It is FUN. We always have snacks. If you want you can bring your favorite game or cards but come and have an afternoon of FUN & LAUGHTER . Our scheduled time is 1-4 P.M. (some have to leave earlier-no problem)

Mark your calendar for some more events:

- April 3rd Pot Luck
- April 7th Fashion Show & Luncheon
- April 10th Kids Karnival
- April 21st Maundy Thursday Seder
- April 24th Easter Egg Hunt

Of course, you know we need HELP for all these exciting events. There will be sign up sheets on the bulletin board. Sign up and support these FUN Days. Also say YES when we call or ask you for HELP. You will always get a THANK YOU and we promise you, you will have FUN.

Marylou Pulliam, Team Leader

BE PART OF GENERAL SYNOD 28

The Florida Conference is hosting General Synod in Tampa, July 1-5, 2011. Synod meets every two years and is a gathering of people delegated by our 38 Conferences to represent the United Church of Christ and to address important matters relating to the church. Participants also include visitors from UCC churches; local, conference and national UCC staff; representatives from many diverse UCC institutions, agencies and ministries; and friends and colleagues from other faith traditions. Be a part of this as a Synod volunteer. Volunteers are asked to commit to one or more four-hour shifts. Everyone who attends Synod must register and pay a registration fee. The fee for a volunteer is $100 (50% of the regular registration fee and entitles you to attend all activities and events, except those that are only open to delegates).

Here are some of the ways Synod volunteers will assist:

- Staff information booth at the Convention Center and hotels
- Assist Registrar of General Synod at the registration area
- Floor Stewards assist in floor management of Synod sessions
- Youth Stewards (14 – 18 years old) help during all plenary sessions
- Assist participants with special needs to fully participate in the activities Synod
- Children's Program and Child Care volunteers provide child care for infants through 5th graders
- Worship Ushers

You will find additional volunteer opportunities listed on the registration site (see below).

Thousands of cookies will also be needed and churches will be receiving information about how they can share the love by baking cookies!

How do I volunteer?

Go to www.uccfla.org/uccfla/General_Synod_2011.html and follow the instructions. Once you have signed up, you will be contacted with further information. If you do not have access to a computer, please call Jo Pritchett, Synod Volunteer Coordinator, at 386-626-3378 or contact Marty Hodgkins at 352-610-4286, who is serving as liaison to the Synod local arrangements committee.
